Rebels And Traitors Lindsey Davis Rebels and Traitors must seem like a new departure for me - though it's really what I always wanted to write. Some of my friends have been hearing about this for nearly fifty years! I was in my teens when I first started caring about the English Civil War, which has always appealed to my libertarian ideals, even though the attempt to install a republic failed and many of the great questions ... Rebels and Traitors | Lindsey Davis Lindsey Davis Rebels and Traitors is a groundbreaking departure for this most admired of British authors, returning to Lindsey Davis first love in historical fiction, the English Civil War. Rebels and Traitors by Lindsey Davis - Alibris I really like Lindsey Davis but the style of rebels and traitors is very history textbookeque. I found Sean Barrett's voice at first also incredibly boring so I did let this one slide a few times. Finally I finished it and found it very interesting. but I think John Lee or Saul Richlin would have been better narrators Rebels and Traitors Audiobook | Lindsey Davis | Audible.co.uk I love Lindsey Davis as an author. She definitely does her research in location and historical background when she writes and I enjoy that aspect very much. However in Rebels and Traitors there was too much history.
