The Twelfth Enchantment David Liss This fascinating nether world weaves through David Liss's intoxicating new novel, The Twelfth Enchantment. Set in Regency England, The Twelfth Enchantment tells the story of Lucy Derrick, a vivacious heroine in the tradition of Jane Austen's Elizabeth Bennett, compelled by her loss of fortune after her father's death into a marriage of convenience to save herself from destitution. The Twelfth Enchantment: A Novel: Liss, David ... David Liss has written some amazing novels about intrigue and machinations in historical eras, featuring men trying to salvage their honor and/or make a fast buck off the suffering of others. In "The Twelfth Enchantment", he employs a different tactic: a female lead, Lucy Derrick, who finds herself plunged into a mysterious world of magic and evil in Regency England. The Twelfth Enchantment by David Liss - Goodreads This was a very fun book. This was a departure from David Liss's other works in that he enters the realm of fantasy a bit. There is still very much the core financial history that is present in all of his work, this time focusing on the Industrial Revolution. The romance angle was a little campy and very predictable, but the overall story was good. The Twelfth Enchantment: Liss, David, Duerden, Susan ... The Twelfth Enchantment.
