Truth and Tolerance - Wikipedia Not long ago, the word tolerance meant bearing or putting up with someone or something not especially liked. However, now the word has been redefined to all values, all beliefs, all lifestyles, all truth claims are equal. Denying this makes a person intolerant, and thus worthy of contempt. Where does this leave Christians? THE NEW TOLERANCE - Christian Answers Network [Home ... A belief is an attitude that something is the case, or that some proposition about the world is true. In epistemology, philosophers use the term "belief" to refer to attitudes about the world which can be either true or false. To believe something is to take it to be true; for instance, to believe that snow is white is comparable to accepting the truth of the proposition "snow is white".
